2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

Meditate
Psalm 1

1. Share some ways you would like to change this year. In what ways have you resisted personal change?
2. What does it mean to meditate on something? How would you do it?
3. What are the things the "blessed" person does not do (V1)? What are the things the "blessed" person does?
4. Share things that bring you delight. Hobbies? Family? Friendships? Food? Whatever? How would you define delight?
5. In verse 2, we are told that God wants us to "delight" in Scripture? What does that practically mean?
6. According to Psalm 1, what characterizes the person who meditates on God's Word day and night?
7. Read Psalm 103:1-2. Notice that David is not speaking to God, but to himself and his own soul. How can you talk to yourself and drive down the truth of God into your heart?
8. Contrast Psalm 1:3 with Psalm 1:4. How are they different? What happens as a result?
9. Spend time finding other passages that describe the value of the power of God's Word (Psalm 19, 119 for example). Discuss.

Some suggestions for you

- Get a good reading plan - Discipleship Journal, M'Cheyne, Chronological. One book a month. Just pick something.
- Get someone to help you stay committed. A friend, a spouse, a child, a family member, whoever! Just pick someone.
- Don't just read. After reading, follow these four questions:
  - a. What does this passage teach you?
  - b. What does it teach you to confess? What actions and attitudes result if I forget what is taught in this passage?
  - c. How can I express thanks to Jesus for being the answer to my sin and my need for him to help me?
  - d. How would I be different if the truth of the passage took hold in my life? What does it teach you to ask for?
