2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

A Split Used For Good
Acts 15:36 - 16:10

1. Have you ever had a sharp disagreement with someone you worked closely with for a long time? What happened?
2. How would you reconcile Paul's writing on unity with other believers and his split with Barnabas? How do you think Barnabas and Paul argued for their positions?
3. Paul decides to travel back to the churches he planted instead of going to new places. Why do you think he did that?
4. Read 16:1-5. Does Paul's behavior with Timothy seem in tension with his uncompromising stand in 15:1-5? What does this teach us about when to compromise?
5. Amongst yourself, piece together the life of Timothy. (Acts 14:6; 16:1-5; 17:14; Philippians 2:19; 1 Thessalonians 3:1-2; 1 Corinthians 4:17; Philippians 2:19-22; 2 Timothy 1:5)
6. Timothy seems to have a Jewish-Christian mother and a Greek father, which probably led to him not being circumcised and being seen as an apostate Jew. Talk about the ramifications of parents with different religious convictions.
7. Trace Paul's movement in Acts 16:1-10 on a map. How do you think the Holy Spirit was guiding them away from certain provinces?
8. Paul's plans are frustrated by God's intervention, which leads to the gospel going to Europe. Has God ever frustrated your plans for another purpose?
9. Notice verse 10 that the author of Acts says "we got ready." What does that tell you about the author of these stories?
10. In the end, how did God work out the split of Paul and Barnabas for good?

They've recently returned from a semester abroad in Tashkent, Uzbekistan - a Muslim republic in Central Asia. They have a long-term plan to plant student ministry teams in Central Asia over the next 10-12 years.

When stateside, they're based in Portland, Oregon, where Rod engages in evangelism, teaching the Scriptures, and discipling students and young men.
