Sermon Discussion

1. Reflecting on Our Journey

Think about the history of Redeemer Church — our triumphs and challenges. How has God shown His faithfulness to Redeemer over the past 52 years?

2. Maximizing Kingdom Impact

In Acts 15:2-3, the early church sought the Lord through fasting and prayer to discern how to maximize their kingdom impact. How can we do the same — not just to sustain our growth, but to expand our gospel reach?

3. Envisioning Our Community

What kind of church do you want Redeemer to be? How can we as a community take practical steps to live out that vision? (See Hebrews 13:1-7)

4. Discovering and Using Our Gifts

(Ephesians 4:7-13, 1 Peter 4:10-11)

Why does God give us gifts? Church leaders are called to equip the congregation for effective ministry.

Where do you feel you need more training or support?

What ministries or initiatives do you feel called to serve in or help develop?

5. Church Growth

For years, we've talked about building options as growth has put a strain on our space. Have you thought about possible solutions? Take some time to discuss how the Lord might be leading us.
