2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

Eager or Jealous?
Acts 17:1-15

1. Discuss a time you were eager to hear someone speak/sing/perform? What was that feeling like? What do you remember about the event?
2. What is your basic strategy for sharing the gospel?
3. Why does Paul always go to the synagogue first in the towns he visits (check out Acts 9:15; Acts 13:44-46; Romans 1:16)? Are there any implications for our own evangelistic strategy?
4. Paul shares the gospel by "reasoning from the Scriptures." What Scripture do you think he would use? How would he prove the Messiah had to suffer?
5. In verse 4, some "God-fearing Greeks" believe. Look up the instances in Acts of this phrase. Who are they? Why are they converted through reasoning from Scripture?
6. Why do some Jews react with jealousy? What are they jealous about?
7. What are the accusations the Jews level against Paul? Why does it work?
8. The Bereans are different than the Thessalonians in that they searched Scripture. How did they do this without a personal copy of Scripture?
9. The Bereans received the message with "eagerness." Have you been eager to hear God's word taught? If not, what is getting in the way?
10. As you read the New Testament, you realize almost no one reads or studies the Scriptures by themselves. What might that mean for our practices as we approach the Bible?

They have a long-term plan to plant student ministry teams in Central Asia over the next 10-12 years.

When stateside, they're based in Portland, Oregon, where Rod engages in evangelism, teaching the Scriptures, and discipling students and young men.
