Sermon Discussion

- Before the sermon, how familiar were you with the passage? Did you change your mind about anything?
- How were you personally challenged or encouraged?
- How might we apply the passage and teaching to our own lives?

Further Discussion

- Why do you think there are so many different groups of Christians (i.e., Lutherans, Catholics, Methodists, Non-Denom, Bible Christians, etc)?
- What is it that makes unity among these various groups so difficult?
- Do you think it was God's intent for so many different groups to exist? Why/Why Not?
- In what ways does the gospel help us to create connections and unity among different groups of believers and their various beliefs?
- Why is unity so difficult?
- When are the times that we should appropriately split from a particular church or denomination?
- What are some things you have had to give way on in order to accommodate and stay in fellowship with a fellow believer?
