2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

The Glorious End of the Gospel
Romans 11:33-12:2

1. Read Isaiah 55:8-9 and compare that with Romans 11:33. Do you believe this? What might cause us to doubt the unsearchable and inscrutable nature of God's purposes and plans? How can we work against that...not just individually but corporately as the church?

2. If 'all things' are from God (11:36)... How do we understand suffering in the life of the believer (consider Job and Hebrews 2:9-18, 5:8)? Is there a purpose to suffering? Does God purposely bring suffering into the life of the believer?

3. How is the gospel a constant source of encouragement to live a life that honors Christ?

4. The world is actively seeking to conform all people into thinking along particular lines. What are some of the ways this is evident and how are we to not only guard against this but actively think and act differently.

5. Although 11:33-34 makes it clear that the Lord is indebted to no one, are there times that we feel that God owes us? What might cause us to think that way and how should we address that?
