Sermon Discussion

Listening, Speaking, and Anger (v. 19–20)

How are listening, speaking, and anger connected in this verse? Paul Tripp says, “No one gives grace better than someone who knows they desperately need it.” How might this shape the way you listen and speak to others? What makes you feel truly heard by others?

Receiving the Word (v. 21)

What does it mean to humbly accept God’s Word? Why is humility essential in responding to Scripture?

Doing, Not Just Hearing (v. 22–24)

Why do we often hear God’s Word but fail to act? How can the gospel free us to look honestly in the mirror without fear, and move toward obedience - not out of guilt, but out of love?

Obedience in Action

Can you name a time you resisted obedience but later followed through? What changed, and what was the result?

True Religion (v. 26–27)

What are the three marks of true religion James gives? Why does James boil down faith to these three things? What three marks might you have said (i.e. evangelism, discipleship, prayer, missions, etc.)?
