The Worthy One | Revelation 5

1. Can you recall a time when life felt meaningless or just completely outside of your control? What was that like? What do you remember about that time?
2. Look at verse 4. Why is John weeping? Why does an angel tell him not to weep (verse 5)? How is it possible to not be crushed by life?
3. Discuss the idea that Jesus is both a lion and a slain lamb who is worthy to open the scroll.
4. In verse 8 the prayers of the saints are brought as incense to God. The prayers of the saints, referred to again in 6:10 and 8:4, call for the judgment of God upon the world and the deliverance of God's people from their enemies. Have you ever prayed for judgement? Discuss.
5. The saints are depicted as already having been made a kingdom (v10). In verse 10, saints "reign on the earth", which is present, not future. What does it mean that the kingdom has broken into the world? What does it mean that we express that authority in the world?
6. This is a scene of overwhelming magnitude. How can this vision impact the daily routine of life like getting out of bed or eating a meal or driving to work or talking to a friend?
