2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

To all who are weary and need rest, to all who mourn and long for comfort, to all who feel worthless and wonder if God cares, to all who fail and desire strength, to all who sin and need a Savior.

Testimony
Acts 22:1-29

1. In Acts 22, how does Paul describe his conversion? How does this account compare to the other two accounts of his conversion in Acts (Acts 9:1-19, Acts 26:9-20)? Why do you think these variations exist?
2. How is Paul's speech uniquely designed for those he is talking to?
3. In Acts 22:7, Paul recounts Jesus asking him, "Why do you persecute me?" How was Paul persecuting Jesus?
4. In Acts 22:16, Paul recounts being told to get "baptized and wash your sins away." What does it mean that baptism washes away sin?
5. Compare Acts 16:22,23,37-39 and Acts 22:22-29. Who did Paul bring up his citizenship to avoid being flogged in Jerusalem but not in Philippi?
6. Paul seems to be leveraging his societal standing for protection from the mob. Are their ways you or others could utilize your standing in our community to further gospel witness?
7. Paul's Roman citizenship (Acts 22:25-29) plays a critical role in this chapter. How does your own cultural or national identity impact the way you live out your faith?
8. What does Paul's mention of Ananias, a devout observer of the law, tell us about the relationship between Judaism and Christianity in this period? Can you find other characters in Acts who show similar devoutness (Acts 10:1-2)?
9. Reflect on Acts 22:10, where Paul asks Jesus, "What shall I do, Lord?" What does this immediate obedience teach us about the response to God's call? How can we apply this willingness to obey in our lives today?
10. Why is the crowd angry? Notice that they don't cut Paul off until what he says in verse 21. What is it about Paul's message that is so offensive?
11. Paul faces intense opposition for his faith in this passage. In what ways do you face opposition or misunderstanding for your faith in your own context?
