Sermon Discussion

- Before the sermon, how familiar were you with the passage? Did you change your mind about anything?
- How were you personally challenged or encouraged?
- How might we apply the passage and teaching to our own lives?

Further Study & Discussion

The church is not promised deliverance from persecution, but God's presence in the midst of it. In fact, suffering for Christ, and joining in the suffering of Christ is the expectation.

How can we encourage one another in the mist of difficult times? What scripture passages can we apply to our hearts in the midst of suffering? How does the joy that is set before us inform our attitude towards joining in the suffering of Christ?
