Sermon Discussion

- Before the sermon, how familiar were you with the passage? Did you change your mind about anything?
- How were you personally challenged or encouraged?
- How might we apply the passage and teaching to our own lives?

Further Study & Discussion

Despite her apparent power, Revelation 17 ends with the destruction of the woman, orchestrated by the very powers that once upheld her.

What does this teach us about God's sovereignty over history and the inevitable collapse of corrupt systems?

How does the certainty of God's ultimate justice encourage you to persevere through present injustices or challenges in life?
