2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

Sewing Fig Leaves
Genesis 3

1. Talking about sin is hard. Therefore, we often tend to generalize it (we are all sinners) versus talking about specific sins (I did____and it was sin). Why do we do that?
2. In order to deceive Eve, the serpent begins by asking, “Did God actually say...?” (Genesis 3:1). How does this kind of doubt serve as a precursor to desire and sin?
3. After the fall, the dynamic between Adam and Eve changes (Genesis 3:7-10). How does sin disrupt our relationships with God and others? (Notice the immediate fallout of this relational destruction; Genesis 4)
4. Eve perceived the fruit as “pleasing to the eye” and “desirable for gaining wisdom” (Genesis 3:6). How do our own desires sometimes lead us astray? How do they increase relational discord? (See James 1:14-15, 4:1)
5. Genesis 3:15 and 3:21 are the first gospel promises. How does the promise about the woman’s offspring crushing the serpent’s head anticipate the work of Christ? (Revelation 20:2) How does the act of making garments/death of an animal cover Adam and Eve’s shame?
