2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

A God Who Defines the Terms of the Relationship
Genesis 12, 15, 17

1. Check out the covenant graphic. How does the concept of covenant impact our understanding of the story of Scripture? Paul writes in Galatians 3:8 that the gospel was 'announced in advance to Abraham'. How is the Abrahamic covenant an 'advanced announcement' of the New Testament gospel?
2. Looking at Genesis 12, what ways can we see Abram's faith as well as his struggles with faith playing out in this chapter? In Genesis 15, Abram asks God, "How can I know?" (verse 8). How does God respond to Abram's need for assurance? What does this teach us about God's character and patience?
3. Read through Genesis 15:9-17. Talk about the implications of God taking on the covenant curses on himself that should fall on Abraham if he breaks the covenant.
4. In Hebrews 11:8-10, Abram's faith is celebrated as he looked forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God. How should this forward-looking faith shape our understanding of God's promises?
5. The journey of Abraham is a journey of faith, struggles, mistakes, and grace. How does Abraham's journey reflect the Christian experience today?
