To all who are weary and need rest, to all who mourn and long for comfort, to all who feel worthless and wonder if God cares, to all who fail and desire strength, to all who sin and need a Savior, this church opens wide her doors with a welcome from Jesus Christ, the Ally of his enemies, the Defender of the guilty, the Justifier of the inexcusable, the Friend of sinners.

New Here?

We're glad you're here! Redeemer is a community of all ages and stages. Regardless of where you are in life, you're welcome here. In all of the various parts of our service, don't feel any pressure to participate today. If you have questions about anything, or would like a free Bible, please head over to the Welcome Center or find someone with a nametag, and they'll steer you in the right direction. Feel free to grab a free coffee at our coffee bar down the hall! Just let them know this is one of your first Sundays here.

Sermon Discussion Questions

TRUSTING GOD TO FIGHT FOR US - ISAIAH 31:1-9

1. Read Isaiah 31:1 and 30:1-5 and 15-17. There's a saying: "There are no atheists in foxholes." Would Isaiah have agreed? Outside of Eden (after the Fall), do you think that humans automatically turn to God during times of crisis?
2. Read Isaiah 31:2-3. Why do you think God will make it his business to bring down Egypt? Do you think God acts the same way today in our lives, removing those crutches that aren't of him?
3. In what ways might you be turning merely to your own resources rather than to God? What's the balance between using the gifts God has given us [intellect, human agency, experience, etc.] and depending completely on him?
4. Read Isaiah 31:4-5. What features of the lion and bird imagery stand out to you? Why?
5. Read Isaiah 31:6-9 and Isaiah 37:33-36. How does God's defeat of Assyria remind you of God's work in Christ?
6. Fill in the blank: "God, would you fight for me in this area/situation: _____?" Share with your group.

2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.
