2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

The God Who is King
2 Samuel 7

1. What is it that David is seeking to do for the Lord? Why does he seek to do so?
2. What is the Lord's response to him?
 - a. It is two-fold – he tells of the rest he's given to Israel and that he will establish David's house.
3. Is the promise contingent on David's (or his line's) obedience? What is the consequence of disobedience?
4. Read Psalm 89:1-4 and 46-51
 - a. What is the reason for the Psalmists praise in 1-4?
 - b. What is the complaint of the Psalmist in 46-51?
 - c. How do we square that there is not a king in David's line on the throne after the fall of Jerusalem in 576?
 - d. How does God bring his promise to fulfillment?
5. If Jesus is the King in David's line on the throne, how does that impact our view of what it means to live in God's kingdom vs living as members of various nations?
6. Does the fact that Jesus sits on the throne have any impact on how we think of the nation of Israel vs the assembled people of God (both Jews and Gentiles) united around the person of King Jesus?
