New Here?

We're glad you're here! Redeemer is a community of all ages and stages. Regardless of where you are in life, you're welcome here. In all of the various parts of our service, don't feel any pressure to participate today. If you have questions about anything or would like a free Bible, please head over to the Welcome Center or find someone with a nametag, and they'll steer you in the right direction. Feel free to grab a free coffee at our coffee bar down the hall! Just let them know this is one of your first Sundays here.

8:45AM | 10:30AM

To all who are weary and need rest, to all who mourn and long for comfort, to all who feel worthless and wonder if God cares, to all who fail and desire strength, to all who sin and need a Savior.

Welcome!

to Redeemer Church

This church opens wide her doors with a welcome from Jesus Christ, the Defender of the guilty, the Justifier of the inexcusable, the Friend of sinners.

Sermon Discussion

- Before the sermon, how familiar were you with the passage? Did you change your mind about anything?
- How were you personally challenged or encouraged?
- How might we apply the passage and teaching to our own lives?

For Further Discussion

In Revelation 21, God's dwelling place is now among his people.

How is this a fulfillment of God's promises throughout Scripture? (Start back in Genesis 1 and 2 and the consequences of the Fall.)

Why is it essential to trust in God's promises, not only as spiritual truth but as reality for our lives?

How often do we actively reflect on the promises God has already fulfilled in our lives, and how can this practice strengthen our faith for the promises yet to come?

What practical steps can we take to remember and celebrate His faithfulness, especially in times when His promises may feel distant?
