2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

The Church is Born
Ephesians 2:11-21

1. When was the church born? What is the church? What is the difference (if any) between a group of Christians getting together and the church gathered?
 - a. Consider what we read in 1 Corinthians 5:3-5. In what ways does Paul distinguish this gathering and how does that inform our understanding of the church?
2. Paul speaks of Christ breaking down the “wall of hostility” (v.14) and through that unifying the church. What are the modern ‘walls’ or barriers within our local church that need to be addressed? How can we work to bring about the unity Christ has accomplished?
 - a. Consider how often Paul speaks of unity in Ephesians: Eph. 4:1-7, 11-16, 25, 32.
3. Paul emphasizes that Gentiles are no longer foreigners (v.12) but fellow citizens and members of the household of God (v.19). How does 1 Peter 2:4-6 enhance our understanding of this image? What does it mean for us to be citizens of God’s kingdom in our local church context?
4. Paul writes that the church is built on the teachings of the apostles and prophets, in what ways can we strengthen our commitment to biblical teaching?
 - a. Consider what we read in Ephesians 4-6.
5. How do we practically obey the commands to submit to our leaders (Hebrews 13:7; 1 Peter 5:1-5), submit to one another (Ephesians 5:15-21), and be a community that actively seeks to maintain the integrity of the congregation (Matthew 18:15-20)?
