2030 Vision

We are a church growing in the grace of the gospel, discipling others across every age and stage of life. We want to be known for humble orthodoxy, evangelical partnerships, prophetic witness, and gospel-centered focus. We hold fast to Scripture, which is faithfully taught and rigorously studied within our community. We do not shy away from theological depth and are a safe place for skeptics and seekers to ask questions. We are well-known not just for theological convictions but for seeking mercy and justice, and are advocates for the broken, marginalized, and oppressed. We value community that portrays how the gospel impacts relationships. Our church makes spiritual and relational commitments to each other that are taken seriously. As community, we pray corporately, in small groups, as families and individuals, expressing our dependence and need for God. We are passionate about equipping and sending disciples into homes, the workplace, schools, and the nations. We purposefully equip future leaders and missionaries for service domestically and globally. We are a place where wounded church leaders can safely come and be made whole again. In our generosity, we provide resources locally and globally for the cause of Christ. Our legacy is about the kingdom of God in Bozeman and beyond for generations to come.

Sermon Discussion Questions

Shepherds & Angels Sing
Luke 2:1-20

- 1.The shepherds have what can only be described as an undeniable overwhelming encounter with the supernatural? Have you or anyone you know had an experience like this? How did you/they respond?
- 2.The theological word for the coming of Jesus is “incarnation.” Read 2 Corinthians 8:9 and Philippians 2:5-7. What did Jesus give up to come as a baby? Why did he voluntarily condescend?
- 3.Read 1 John 4:7-10. As you think of the incarnation, define the love of God. How then shall we live (v11-12)? Get really specific.
- 4.Why did the angels first announce the birth of Jesus to shepherds? How is it an example of God’s priorities and mercy?
- 5.In verse 11, we are given three titles of Jesus. What is significant about each of them?
- 6.The angels bring a message of peace? What kind of peace is being offered?
- 7.Verse 15 - the shepherds immediately go looking for Jesus and seemingly abandon their job and flock. How is this an example to us?
- 8.The angels (v14) and shepherds (v20) react to the news of Jesus arrival with song. Why is singing such a natural response to good news?
- 9.As you think about the rhythms of worship in your life this Christmas, what are the tangible ways you are worshiping Jesus?
